Write php application to do the following

    a. Insert/delete student info and upload pdf file (don't save file on database)
    b. Table on web page contain student info and link to pdf file
    c. API to get student info and pdf file

UI and API result

file

Web application and API

Database contain two tables 1- student info
2- student file (pdf)

Studen PDF file stored on server